"A Merry Christmas to All"

Get the Candles Ready

NARBERTH'S HAPPY FORM OF CHRISTMAS GREETING HAS BECOME A CUSTOM

We hang up garlands everywhere,
And bid the tapers twinkle fair.
Susan Coolidge.

Five years ago—Christmas 1915—about three score Narberthites inaugurated the candle greeting as an expression of neighborliness to the passerby. These loyal home folks responded to a suggestion made in Our Town, and the first silent salutation took the form of a single candle placed in each window, visible to the street or streets near the individual's home.

In 1916, by actual count, there was a minimum of 115 homes which adopted the happy custom. And from the simple single candle form the salutation grew into geometric arrangements of candles displayed in every window of the house. One of the simpler of these arrangements was obtained by the use of two short candles and one tall candle, the tall candle being placed in the center and the two short candles on either side of the tall one.

In the years 1917, 1918 and 1919, this custom grew in amazing proportions and became a unique, looked-for-happening to our local residents.

Sincerely a block was without at least one candle greeting last year; most blocks had several and some blocks had no houses that were without some form of the silent salute—the sign of "Peace on earth, good-will toward men" and of that true spirit of brotherhood which means real democracy of having unselfish thought for others.

The candle greeting is a very old custom in England, but is used in few places in the United States, Baltimore being one of the few large cities to consistently repeat the practice year after year.

Narberth has adopted the greeting as its own and each year has found it more widely practiced. So let us beat last year's record—let us add every newcomer to the list and half as many more. Better still, let's see to it that every occupied house shows at least one candle on the eve of December 24, and let's keep them burning from 8:30 to midnight.

Last year many persons toured the town to view the illuminations while on their way to the several "watch" meetings. Do not disappoint these persons this year. Get your candles! BE PREPARED!

And just to increase cheer within doors for the home folks and for the out-of-town folk who may be guests, let every owner of a fireplace make use of it this holiday season of 1920. Get some wood of some kind—and burn it.

And to further increase the atmosphere of an old-fashioned Christmas, let us hear the voices of the carolers early in the morning of Christmas Day.

THE FIRESIDE

Mrs. L. H. Trotter, of 105 Woodside Avenue, is critically ill.

Mr. George H. Gifford was in Narberth on Wednesday. Mr. Gifford is on his way to Florida for the winter.

Mrs. Frederick Schweitzer and Miss Mary Hughes, of Cranbury, N. J., are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Brooks, of Narberth Avenue.

Those who post quantities of letters during the holidays are requested to face the letters all one way and tie them with strings or rubber bands.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Logan, of Sheldon, Iowa, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Jacobs, of Elmwood Avenue.

A meeting of the Playground Directors will be held soon after the first of the year, when the various investigations now being made are expected to be completed.

The report in last week's issue of Our Town pertaining to playground projects in other Main Line towns indicates that Narberth did not act too quickly to maintain its prestige as a leading Suburban Community.

Don't forget the community Christmas Carols to be held at the High School, Monday evening, the 20th, at 8:00 P. M. These will be well worth attending, and there will be room for everybody.

Come sing the Christmas Carols with the Narberth M. E. Choir, accompanied by Dorothy Johnstone Baseler on the harp—Sunday evening, December 19th, 7:45 P. M., at the M. E. Church.

The proposed Playground, Athletic Field, Community Centre, etc., would assure ample facilities for all phases of outdoor activities, including an ice-skating rink. The ball players are keen for their part of it and are volunteering their aid in getting the ground ready as soon as possible.

Some feature of the proposed outdoor Centre, playground, athletic field, village green, etc., has a personal interest for every man, woman and child in the Borough. With most of the residents, all of its various features have an attraction.

Mr. Collins, of Narbrook, has not as yet purchased the Sedan advertised in last week's issue because he simply won't stand for a liveried chauffeur, while his daughter insists of having one. It is said Mrs. Collins will make the decision before Christmas.

Scrooge and Christmas!

"A Merry Christmas, Bob!" said Scrooge, with an earnestness that could not be mistaken, as he clapped him on the back. "A Merrier Christmas, Bob, my good fellow, than I have given you for many a year—"

Scrooge was better than his word. He did it all, and infinitely more, and to Tiny Tim, he was a second father.

And so, as Tiny Tim observed, God bless us, Every One!

Merion Title and Trust Co. Mails Christmas Checks

OVER $39,000.00 DISTRIBUTED IN
NARBERTH—NEW CLUB NOW
FORMING FOR COMING YEAR.

Checks were mailed last Saturday by the Merion Title and Trust Company, amounting to $155,000 to its Christmas Club depositors. Over $39,000 of this amount being mailed by its Narberth office to its members here. The receipt of this amount will enable many to have a very happy Christmas.

The popularity and success of the Christmas Club has been phenomenal. The Club gives everybody a chance to save regularly, for the bank is willing to accept small amounts. Even boys and girls are invited to become members, for it is a well-known fact that the saving habit needs to be fostered. Once the youthful mind realizes how pleasant it is to have money in bank, the saving habit will become life-long.

The new Club is now forming. If you were fortunate enough to have been a member you will want to join again. If you were not a member you should join the new Club, which is now forming.

Well-known Harpist to Play in Narberth

DOROTHY JOHNSTONE BASELER
TO PLAY IN NARBERTH FOR FIRST TIME.

A musical treat is in store for the music-loving public of our fair town on Sunday, December 19th, when the popular artist will assist the chorus choir of the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church render its carol service at 7:45 P. M., under the personal direction of Prof. Clarence C. Nice.

Prof. Nice has in the short period of two months brought the efficiency of the organization, which is composed of 30 voices, up to a high level, and they are producing work of a high calibre, in fact to the same high standard produced by the large choruses of the prominent city churches.

Mrs. Baseler needs no introduction to the lovers of music in this vicinity, and if you want to usher in the Christmas season singing and listening to the good old carols come early, as the seating capacity of the church is limited.

OUR CHRISTMAS THOUGHT

During the Christmas Season we should count ourselves in nothing else so happy as in the possession of a soul remembering our good friends. The spirit of the day should be that of gratitude. Our joy should be in the giving, not alone in the receiving, and we should constantly keep in mind that as we speak and as we meditate, our words and thoughts should be always acceptable to our God.

Editorial

The men and women who venture forth with proposals in behalf of civic welfare usually know pretty well what to expect.

As a rule, their efforts are at once acclaimed by other folks of the same public spirit and generous co-operation accorded.

Fine progress gets on its way.

Then comes the nibbling and sniping, the snap judgment and querulous fault-finding of a minority whose chronic "non-concurrence" is described by Jay House as an ingrown part of their nature.

They can't help themselves, hence they can't help anything else.

But the harm they can do is incalculable.

And they put the rest of us in about the same plight as the poor woman whose husband was heard to say as he went home to his supper: "I'll raise h— if she hasn't got it cooked, and if she has got it cooked I won't eat a d— bit of it."

Let there be hope.

Our Town is in receipt of a letter signed "one of the boys," stating that he was in the Y. M. C. A. last Sunday night, and had a very nice time, and that he and the rest of the boys were sorry it was closed. He further asks with a bit of profanity why Narberth cannot run a Y. M. C. A. and also states in a very crude fashion his opinion of Narberth as a town, provided it cannot support a Y. M. C. A. or a Moving Picture place.

Of course, we cannot publish any letters that are not signed, but whoever wrote this letter is perhaps ignorant of the facts concerning the Y. M. C. A. and we think it would be well for him to talk the matter over with one of the Board in order to get the facts, and not send unsigned letters to Our Town regarding this matter, as no letters will be published unless the signature is attached. The Editor knows by whom the communication is sent.

CHRISTMAS CANDLES IN WINDOW

For a number of years past the delightful custom of placing lighted candles in the windows of our homes on Christmas Eve has prevailed in Narberth. There is nothing more suggestive of peace on earth and good will to men than this charming practice, at a time when our hearts are filled with love for our fellows, and when around many a hearthstone are gathered reunited families.

How lovely it is to go out into our streets, which seem pervaded by an expectant hush, and watch the beams from thousands of candles as they pierce the gloom and bear on their radiant wings messages of cheer to all the world. Our thoughts go back to the source of these rays, and we see behind them groups of expectant children, eagerly discussing the coming of Santa Claus and the anticipated morning to come.

Let Narberth make this year a banner year as to the candle spirit which has grown so gradually yet so permanently to our town folk that the custom is now so well established that Narberth stands quite alone in this unique Christmas Eve suggestiveness of "Peace on earth, and good will toward men."

There's not much politics, as the term goes, in Narberth.

Charley Noel puts us all in his hat and pays a visit to the committee.

What happens then we don't know.

At any rate, things here couldn't be much better than what they are.

A fact which the Anvil Chorus will please note.

We have a Council which is characterized by capacity, industry, enterprise—and vision—

Earnest, hard-working and painstaking.

They have worked real wonders during the last few years—

Much more than the average citizen begins to realize.

But their light has been under a bushel.

And their only recompense is the satisfaction which comes from service well-rendered.

It ought to be more than that—they ought to at least have a square deal from everybody—

Some decent regard for wholesome effort.

There's not much politics in Narberth—but there is a lot of gainless garrulity—

More than enough of pusillanimous puffing.

"FATHER PENN AND JOHN BARLEYCORN."

One of the most interesting and altogether worthwhile new books this season is entitled "Father Penn and John Barleycorn," of which brief mention was made in these columns a week or so ago.

It is interesting for several reasons, not the least of which is that the author is a well-known resident of Narberth, Rev. Harry M. Chalfant, of Chestnut Avenue; and it is exceedingly worthwhile for several reasons, one of the foremost of which is that it sheds a great deal of light on what is probably the most talked about phenomenon of the twentieth century—the Nineteenth, or Prohibition, Amendment.

Here then, is a book that anti-Prohibitionists as well as Prohibitionists can read with equal interest and enlightenment.

Many folks still find it difficult to realize that the people of the United States have actually adopted National Prohibition. Of course—as Mr. Blythe pointed out the other day in the well-known "Satevepost"—the air is full of talk about bootlegging, home brew and how and where a thirsty soul can get a case or a quart of whiskey for $46 or $446, or whatever the amount is, and there are a good many people who mistake all this talk for a nation-wide wave of indignation against Prohibition.

But the fact remains, however, after all is said and done, that the advocates of Prohibition have accomplished one of the most tedious and difficult achievements possible—the adopting of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States. National Prohibition is a law, and back of the passage of that law is the story of a struggle and fight that has been going on for generations, and the development of a public opinion much more powerful and effective than most people realize.

So if you are still puzzled, perplexed and dumbfounded that the Prohibition Amendment was passed, read Mr. Chalfant's book. You'll find therein the answers to practically all your questions. And, incidentally, you'll read a narrative that is full of human interest, romance, courage, devotion, sacrifice and genuine heroism. In many parts it is strongly suggestive of Benjamin Franklin's Autobiography.

Briefly "Father Penn and John Barleycorn" is exactly what is implied by the title—the historical narrative of the custom of drinking, the liquor business and the liquor traffic here in our own State of Pennsylvania from the days of William Penn and the Indians up to the final passage of the Nineteenth Amendment and its adoption by the States. Mr. Chalfant has traced with exceeding care and accuracy the complete career of John Barleycorn from the early days when he was used to rob and defraud the Indians up to his more modern "achievements" in corrupting political life and public offices. He does not "preach" and denounce; rather he relates historically established facts.

Anyone who still can't see the difference between the "personal rights and liberties" of a citizen treating guests in his home to a bottle of wine after dinner, and the liquor traffic and business as it existed here in the United States before the passage of the Prohibition Amendment, would do well to read "Father Penn and John Barleycorn." There isn't a dull line in the book and it is chuck full of illuminating information on a very timely and much discussed question.

"Father Penn and John Barleycorn" is published by the Evangelical Press, Harrisburg, but may be purchased in any of the Philadelphia book stores.

THE LINCOLN THEATRE

To be Built at Ardmore By Messrs. Kettnering and Hassinger

The report published last week of a proposed new theatre for Ardmore has brought to light the fact that such steps had already been taken by two well-known Ardmore men, who have been connected with the moving picture business from the time it was first introduced along the Main Line.

Jacob A. Kettnering and Walter S. Hassinger, who built the present Ardmore theatre, realizes many months ago that a larger and more modern theatre building was needed in that town and they secured an option on a centrally located building lot and had plans prepared for a playhouse that would have all the features of the big city theatres and provide for the amusement of Main Line residents for many years to come.

The Home News has received the following statement from the two gentlemen named above which gives a few details of their proposed plans:

"The Lincoln Theatre will be the name of the new theatre to be built in Ardmore by the undersigned. Bids are in and contracts closed for a theatre building with a seating capacity of 1500. We intend to make this theatre second to none in the State of Pennsylvania and as we control indefinitely the first run of many of the leading photoplay features on the Main Line the residents of the Main Line will be assured of the highest class moving picture productions. A Mohler organ costing $15,000 will be installed and the building which will be modern in every particular will cost approximately $225,000. Watch for further details in your local paper."

Signed: J. A. KETTNERING, W. S. HASSINGER.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers, and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

Special Christmas Music at the Baptist Church

A CANTATA ENTITLED, "A WONDROUS LIGHT," BY STULTZ.

Every one who attended the Baptist Church last Christmas no doubt remembers the beautiful cantata that was rendered by the choir on that occasion.

This year, Mr. L. Claude Jones, organist and choirmaster, has been preparing for a number of weeks a beautiful musical Christmas service, which will be rendered by the choir on Sunday evening, December 19th, at 7.45 o'clock.

In order to bring out the full beauty of this cantata, Mr. Jones has doubled his quartette, and by so doing has obtained most gratifying results. The choir, consisting of Miss May Fielis and Miss Lydia Dinning, sopranos; Mrs. Katharine Trowbridge and Miss Marguerite Mueller, contraltos; Mr. W. Irving Trotter and Mr. Harry Kelso, tenors; Mr. F. R. Mitchell and Mr. Frank Taylor, bassos, have been most untiring in their efforts, and every one who is fortunate enough to attend the Baptist Church here at Narberth on this Sunday evening is assured of a musical treat.

A Merry Christmas and a real hearty welcome to all.

NEW NARBERTH 'SQUIRE

Constable Walzer Appointed Magistrate for Borough.

Fred Walzer, well known in Narberth and along the Main Line as a baseball player and manager of teams in the Main Line League on behalf of his home town, on Thursday received a letter from Harry S. McDevitt, secretary to Governor Sprout, notifying him of his appointment as Justice of the Peace for Narberth borough.

Mr. Walzer has been constable of Narberth for the past fourteen years. He will succeed A. W. Brockmeyer as magistrate. Mr. Brockmeyer resigned recently.

Squire Walzer will shortly announce the opening of an office in the business section of Narberth for the conduct of his new duties.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN THE IRISH QUESTION?

A local branch of the Association for the American Recognition of Irish Freedom was established in St. Margaret's Hall, last Sunday evening, when several speakers addressed the numerous audience which had assembled. The purpose of the branch is to provide accurate information regarding the various phases of the Irish Question, which is said to be subject to many misunderstandings. Monthly meetings will be held and membership is available to any one who is interested. Answers will also be made by mail to requests for information regarding the viewpoint of the Americans who are espousing Ireland's cause on any of the mooted questions.

Scout News

December 13.—Scouts present with Scoutmaster and Mascot.

A lot of scouts will go to Camp Delmont reunion December 28 at Central Y. M. C. A. When Mr. Patton said this, everybody was happy, but did not want to make any noise, so they let Scout Wannamaker do the clapping. I do not say that because I have a grudge against him, but he is good-natured and does not mind.

The efficiency contest ends December 13.

Scout Lambert wore his uniform at the meeting when he did not have to. He does not wear it to inspection.

THOMAS MERKLE,
Scout Editor.

WHY DO THEY DO IT?

Why do some of the residents of Narberth insist on trying to get aboard a train after it has started?

Or, why do they jump off before the train has stopped?

The swift electric trains, to which we are accustomed, are terribly dangerous things to trifle with.

Last Monday morning, had it not been for the prompt act of one of our town's highly respected citizens, and the immediate application of the emergency brake by a member of the train crew, one of the young women of this borough would undoubtedly have been severely injured, if not killed, through her foolishness in making an attempt to board the 8:29 electric train to Philadelphia after it had started away from the station.

It was confidently felt that this practice had been completely broken up some months ago, when the Pennsylvania Railroad stationed a special officer at each stairway with instructions to use force, if necessary, in actually preventing any one from getting on a train after it was under way.

Common sense, itself, ought to cause people of even ordinary intelligence to think before taking a risk, as this young woman did. The Railroad authorities have done everything they could to protect the lives of their patrons, but when those who for one reason or another are late in arriving at the station, disregard all thought of danger, it is hard to feel that the Railroad or its employees should be censured in case of an accident.

Narberth has an excellent commuting train service, especially during the "rush" hour, so that even passing one train entirely, does not mean more than a half hour longer in getting to work. The loss of that brief time is nothing compared to the risk of life or limb. But the proper thing is to start a few minutes earlier and make the train comfortably and safely without the necessity for haste.

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate one hundred per cent. Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, State and Nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.—Preamble to the Constitution of the American Legion.

Fall in—Assembly Has Sounded

Our "Annual Membership Drive" is on.

All former service men of the World War are respectfully invited and urgently requested to join the ranks of the local American Legion Post.

The Harold D. Speakman Post, 356, is generally acknowledged to be the finest group of "Live Wires" along the Main Line.

We have our own quarters located at Elmwood and Essex avenues, just south of Narberth Station, where you are welcome at all times.

The Narberth American Legion Building and Loan Association is officered and directed by members of the local American Legion Post.

No, We Have Not Forgotten the Ladies.

The American Legion Auxiliary is open to all mothers, sisters, wives and daughters of former service men, or other ladies who were themselves in the service. The Auxiliary and Legion have many social functions planned together.

JOIN US, YOU WILL NOT BE SORRY.

See Post Adjutant. Phone, Narberth 636.

NEW YEAR'S EVE DANCE.

Do not forget the New Year's Eve Dance to be held in Elm Hall on Friday evening, December 31st.

Tickets can be purchased from any member of the Legion Post or at Howard's Drug Store. You may pay at the door if you decide to come at the last moment.

DUES FOR 1921.

The dues for 1921 are now due and every member should try to pay up as soon as possible, as the Finance Committee wants to plan its financial program for 1921.

At the meeting of the Post last Friday, December 10th, it was decided that each member should be assessed $1.00 extra in order to meet the present financial obligations.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Post was held last Friday evening, December 10. It was the best meeting as far as the spirit and co-operation of the members that the Post has held so far. Everyone was pleased with our new quarters and since that meeting several of the committees have held meetings in the club house and find it a very comfortable place to spend an evening.

The officers for the year of 1921 were elected as follows: Commander, James W. Follin; Vice-Commanders, Irvin T. Wass, Walter M. Burkhardt; Post Finance Officer, H. Newton Compton; Post Adjutant, Harry A. Simpson; Post Historian, Maurice B. duMarais.

The following men were elected to serve on the Executive Committee in addition to the officers: Dr. Clarence T. Faries, George B. Sefton, Jr., Edwin H. Wipf, Alexander C. Shand, Jr., and Robert S. Durbin.

DONATION OF BOOKS AND FLAG POLE.

We wish to thank the unknown donor of the books and flag pole found on the porch of our new home some time ago. We regret that we do not know who the donor is, because we would like to express our appreciation in the form of a personal letter.

REGULAR JOB.

"And what might your work have been during the late war?" asked an old lady visiting the Atlantic fleet as it lay at anchor in the Hudson.

"Ma'am," replied the gob wearily, "I worked on a submarine, and every time they wanted to dive I'd run forward and tip 'er up."

Ramey wood coke—made at the best and most modern equipped coke plant in the world, and at pre-war prices.

You can use this fuel with or without Anthracite coal either for cooking or heating. We are told that great cities of the Middle West use coke exclusively for these purposes. There is no slate, no waste of any kind.

Give this product a good fair unprejudiced trial and help bring down the price of Anthracite (now a rich man's luxury.)

The price is $9.50 chuted in and $10.00 carried per net ton anywhere in this district.

The Narberth Comrades of the Civil War met at the home of Mr. G. W. Fraley, 312 Essex Avenue, last Friday evening and spent a delightful time in recalling incidents of that time and in singing the old war songs. These comrades included Mr. T. G. Hall, Mr. Monroe, Mr. W. V. B. Humes, Mr. James McDevitt and Rev. Mr. Shingle.

The publication of the complete list of investors in the Narberth Playground Association will be delayed until the first meeting of the Directors, as a number of residents have indicated they desire to co-operate, but prefer to wait until the first of the year before they pledge a definite amount. It is said the investments now approximate $25,000.

The Junior Red Cross is beginning to be active through the Main Line Branch No. 1, A. R. C.

Already the Lyman School at Wynnewood has undertaken to fill stockings for Red Cross families.

Any other schools interested in filling stockings or Christmas baskets will please communicate with Mrs. G. Brinton Lucas, Wynnewood, Pa. Telephone Ardmore 255.

B. J. Martin, of Ardmore, is chairman of a committee in charge of arrangements for an indoor bazaar to be conducted January 31—February 5, in the school house of St. Thomas's Church, Seventeenth and Morris Streets, Philadelphia, for the benefit of the fund being raised for the proposed nurses' home at St. Agnes Hospital.

Mrs. Christian A. Hagan, of Haverford, is chairman of the Ladies' Auxiliary, which will aid in conducting the bazaar. Several other residents of the Main Line are interested in the event.
